SKI TOURING - HAUTE ROUTE VERBIER ZERMATT

Duration: 4

Level: ▲▲▲▲▲

Price from: 1 065 €

The Chamonix-Zermatt Haute Route's little sister, the Verbier-Zermatt Traverse follows the same route and forms a superb voyage through the Swiss canton of Valais. This is an attractive alternative to the Haute Route if you don't have enough time or you would like to focus on exploring the mountains of this area. Despite its popularity, this tour is a serious undertaking requiring good levels of skiing experience and physical fitness. This route leads you into some of the most spectacular parts of the Valais. This is guaranteed to take you away from it all, exploring some exceptionally beautiful landscapes.

This tour is part of a series of ski tours that we have carefully set for you to explore the majestic mountains of the Swiss Valais region. Each of these tours promises an outstanding skiing experience in the heart of the breathtaking Alpine scenery. Spend an extraordinary night at the Dent du Midi bivouac, set against a stunning backdrop. Revel in the Saas Fee's 4,000-meter peaks, or continue your adventure along the logical progression of the Haute Route Chamonix-Zermatt in the Monte Rosa massif.

ITINERARY

Day 1

Verbier - Cabane de Prafleuri

From the Verbier ski area, the ski lifts take us to the foot of the Col de la Chauz (2940m), which is our first climb. Next we reach the Col de Momin (3003m), which gives access to the magnificent Grand Désert glacier. We continue to the lower slopes of the Rosablanche (3336m), which we can climb as a round-trip from here, before descending to the charming Prafleuri hut (2662m).
Vertical ascent: 700m / Vertical descent: 900m

Day 2

Cabane de Prafleuri - Cabane des Dix

We start the day with a short climb to the Col des Roux (2804m) from where we can see the rest of the day's route. A long descending traverse leads us to one end of the Dix lake. From here we climb up via the Pas du Chat (2385m) to the Dix hut (2928m), which is dominated by the Mont Blanc de Cheilon (3869m).
Vertical ascent: 850m / Vertical descent: 400m

Day 3

Cabane des Dix - Cabane des Vignettes

Our day begins with a short descent to reach the Tsena Refien glacier, along which we make our way up to the Pigne d'Arolla (3796m). At around 3600m we might have to use crampons on the 'passage de la Serpentine'. The summit of the Pigne d'Arolla is one of the best viewing points on the Haute Route, with panoramic views across the Alps. This stunning glacier stage concludes with the beautiful descent to the Vignettes hut (3160m).
Vertical ascent: 1000m / Vertical descent: 640m

Day 4

Cabane des Vignettes - Zermatt

We start with a short descent to the Mont Collon glacier, which we climb up to reach the Col de l'Evêque (3392m). We next descend the upper Arolla glacier to the Vierge where we put on our skins to reach the foot of the Col du Mont Brulé (3213m), which we climb using crampons. After a short descent, we go to the Col de Valpelline (3554m), which is our last climb. The time has come to commence our descent to Zermatt and probably one of the most beautiful descents in the Alps, passing beneath the Dent d'Hérens (4171m) and the Matterhorn (4478m). We reach Zermatt mid-afternoon.

Vertical ascent: 1130m / Vertical descent: 2730m
