SKI TOURING - GRAN PARADISO

Duration: 3

Level: ▲▲▲▲▲

Price from: 615 €

The Gran Paradiso is very well known probably because it is one of the most accessible of the 4000m Alpine peaks. The Madonna on the summit also bears witness to the prominent place the mountain occupies in the Italian psyche, as it is the only 4000m peak entirely in Italy. It is located in the heart of a national park created in 1922 and provides frequent encounters with a rich variety of wildlife, such as chamois and ibex. The Victor Emmanuel hut is the ideal starting point for the ascent of the Gran Paradiso. It gives access to the wide, low gradient slopes that are perfect for skiing. Only the last 50m require crampons to reach the summit.

To discover the mountains of Valle d'Aosta, we have developed a series of ski tours and trips in the Italian Valley. These adventures allow you to enjoy the exceptional playground of this area while experiencing high-quality accommodations that live up to the region's reputation. Explore also the Val Magia hut, a hidden gem just a few steps from Aosta. Enjoy a gentle introduction to ski touring in the Val Ferret facing the south side of the Mont Blanc massif. Finally, embark on a ski tour in Val de Rhêmes, which showcases the Italian side of Val d'Isere.

ITINERARY

Day 1

Transfer by minibus from Chamonix to Pont (1 960m). We commence our climb to the Victor Emmanuel hut on a steep path through larches. The gradient now eases off and gentle slopes lead to the hut.

Vertical ascent: 770m

Day 2

We climb the Gran Paradiso in a round-trip from the hut. This allows us to take our time and make the most of the atmosphere here. From the hut a climb over an even gradient leads us to the Gran Paradiso glacier (3 200m), then the junction with the Lavaciau glacier (3 600m) and finally the foot of the Gran Paradiso (4 060m). The final 50m require crampons and rope. We are greeted on the summit by a statue of the Madonna and a breath-taking panorama. Superb descent to the Victor Emmanuel hut.

Vertical ascent: 1350m / Vertical descent: 1350m

Day 3

We climb up to the base of the northeast arête of Le Ciarforon (2 935m), from where reach the Grand Etret glacier via a long descending traverse. We put our skins back on to reach the Col du Grand Etret (3 150m) from where we are afforded handsome views of the Southern Alps. We descend the untouched valley of the Grand Etret to rejoin Pont. Transfer to Chamonix, which we reach by mid-afternoon.

Vertical ascent: 550m / Vertical descent: 1300m
